Markets were surprised yesterday as RBA raised its key policy by 25bps (est.: pause) to 11-year high of 4.1%, and further indicated that more tightening might be needed to bring inflation down to targeted levels. Meanwhile, Australia's GDP growth slowed to 1.5-year low of 0.2% (QoQ) in Q1CY23 versus est.: 0.3% and 0.5% in Q4CY22. Tight financial conditions globally are impacting overall demand which is being reflected in China's more than expected (-0.4%) decline in exports in May'23 (-7.5%) following 8.5% increase in Apr'23. Imports declined less sharply (-4.5% versus est.: -8% and -7.9% in Apr'23). Fears of muted global demand also impacted oil prices. Investors now await decisions from other major central banks for guidance.

- Global indices closed mixed. S&P rose modestly to its highest level in CYTD23, and Nikkei was up at its 33-year high, while Shanghai Comp registered a steep decline. In Japan, fast retailing and housing stocks lifted the markets. Investors also await Fed's rate decision due next week. Sensex ended flat as gains in realty and auto were outweighed losses in tech and metal stocks. It is trading further higher today, while other Asian stocks are trading lower.

- Except JPY (flat) and INR (higher), other global currencies fell against the dollar. DXY was up by 0.1% as investors reassess their bets on Fed rate hike (Jul'23 if not Jun'23). INR rose by 0.1%, as oil prices fell. It is trading further higher today, while other Asian currencies are trading mixed.

- Barring UK (flat), other global yields closed lower. 10Y yields in US and India (-2bps each) fell the most. Investors are now betting on a pause by Fed in Jun'23 and a hike in Jul'23. Following global cues, decline in oil prices, and awaiting MPC's decision due tomorrow, India's 10Y yield too declined. It is trading flat today.
