Margins remain a priority; HOLD

- Sales came in 4% below consensus while EBITDA was 10% lower due to margin being 152bps below expectations
- Rising competition-driven higher A&P spend contracted EBITDA margin by 40bps on a YoY basis
- Gross margins remain a priority. We see risk of permanent loss of shelf space as volume growth continues to be negative. Retain HOLD

Sales and EBITDA miss: Sales came in 4% below consensus while EBITDA was 10% lower due to margin being 152bps below expectations. On a YoY basis, Standalone sales were +1.3% with domestic +1.2%. The 180bps contraction in EBITDA margin was due to higher A&P and other expenses as gross margins were relatively flat YoY.

Intensifying competition across businesses: Nestle noted rising competition across its businesses. Confectionary remains competitive due to varying levels of price increases based on underlying input composition. We expect the noodles category is also promotional partly due to recent M&A (Tata Consumer and Capital Foods). While high margins have always been an attraction, the recent rise in quick commerce is now enabling new players to do nationwide launches in tier 1/2 cities.

FY25 forecasts: We forecast 3% sales growth as pricing growth gets largely offset by volume losses. Our EBITDA growth forecast is +2% as we assume 10bps margin contraction to 24.0% despite 150bps higher gross margins. Nestle expects more pricing to come through in FY25E and we expect an accelerated level of A&P to manage volume losses.

Our view and valuation: Nestle continues to keep its focus on margins. We view this as a negative given India is still in a growth phase and far from maturity. We value Nestle based on P/E relative to the NIFTY 50 index. Given its pricing-driven, slower-than-average sales growth profile over the next 12 months, we do not apply any premium on Nestle India's relative P/E. We use 67x 12M to Sep'26 P/E to derive the TP of Rs 2,543 (previously Rs 2,820). Retain HOLD.

2QFY25 result review

Earnings summary

We reduce our sales forecasts across FY25-FY27 by 3%-7%. Our EBITDA forecasts revisions are steeper at -3% to -18% due to negative operating leverage along with higher A&P spend. We expect pricing-driven sales growth through FY25E and at least part of FY26E given the trend over the past few quarters and management commentary on likelihood of more pricing. While gross margins are higher in FY25E, we reduce operating leverage to derive a much slower rate of EBITDA growth. We now expect volumes to pickup within 3Q26 (1Q26 prior estimate). We forecast 3% sales growth in FY25, a meaningful slowdown vs history.
