Commentary

- Nifty closed on a negative note for the third straight session, slipping by 74 points on the monthly expiry day. Bank Nifty, however, continued to show resilience with a marginal decline of 15 points.
- The Realty index (+1.62%) rebounded after the recent fall, and a recovery was also seen in the PSU Banking index (+1.44%). The IT index (-0.57%) witnessed another round of profit booking, while weakness persisted in the Consumer Durables space.
- For Nifty, 26000 remains a critical resistance level. A revival of bullish sentiment appears likely only if the index breaks above this mark. Bank Nifty continues to hover around 59000, moving within a broader range of 58500 to 59300.
